		Education in virtue	Me, my body and my health	Education in virtue	Personal Relationships	Education in virtue
	Appreciative for blessings	The names of the external parts of the body. The physical similarities and differences between girls and boys.	Respectful of others, their uniqueness, their wants and their needs. Honest, able to tell the difference between truth and lies.	There are different family structures and these should be respected. To recognise when people are being unkind to them and others and how to respond.	Just and fair in their treatment of other people, locally, nationally, and globally. People who serve others, locally, nationally, and globally.	That behaviour has an impact on the communities to which they belong. That people and other living things have needs and that they have responsibilities to meet them.

	Religious understanding of the human person: loving myself	Emotional well-being and attitudes	Religious understanding of human relationships: loving others	Keeping Safe and people who can help me	Religious understanding of human communities
	We are all God's children.	A basic understanding that feelings and actions are two different things. Simple strategies for managing feelings and behaviour.	That we should love other people in the same way Jesus loves us.	The difference between good and bad secrets. That there are a number of different people and organisations they can go to for help in different situations.	Jesus' teaching on who is my neighbour.
